

In the base “Auxiliary methods” Scenar therapist will find the experience on the reflexotherapy (acupuncture) for the treatment of various illnesses. The treatment can be carried on with the help of the Scenar device on the area, adjoining the acupuncture point or use the external electrodes for the direct influence on it.

In the base “Acupuncture reference book” there is the topography of the meridians and acupuncture points, tender areas and other reference information.

In the base “Doctor's note-book” a Scenar-therapist can make his notes, pictures, illustrating the work with the patient.

The diagnosis includes the following data bases.

- “tracks”
- “tracks of the therapist-operator”
- “strategy data base”
- “inspections”

In the base “Tracks” sequence of the influence points for the diagnostic inspections on the base of the recommendations and methods of the treatment of single illnesses, proved by the committee of new medical techniques of the Ministry of health is shown.

The base “Tracks of the Therapist-operator” consists of the sequence of influence points for the diagnostic inspection, created by the Scenar-therapist independently.

“Strategy data base” includes the algorithmic methods, such as “higher”, “still higher”.

The base “Inspections” provides with the storage of the diagnostic measures results and provides with the comfortable access to them.

Service includes different tunings which allow to create the maximum comfortable environment for the user. Help the reference material on the Scenar 97.7 system.

SCENAR-Pro+ the Universe are the culmination of researches, development and dialogue with clients

The SCENAR (Biofeedback-controlled electro-stimulator) is regulated by the United States Food and Drug Administration, under 21 CFR 882.5050. Generic Name: device, Biofeedback, Product Code HCC, Class II exempt from 510 (K) pre-market notification according to FDA Notice FR21ja98-84 as a battery-powered, professional use device for relaxation training and muscle re-education.

The SCENAR BF Biofeedback Electro-stimulator is a quality medical instrument certified by the European Common Market CE-120, Australian (ARTG)№ 14-659, equivalent of the US FDA, for pain control. FDA approval requires that the SCENAR be used by or upon the recommendation of a licensed health practitioner.

MEDICAL BILLING: For insurance company purposes, SCENAR technology treatments can be billed to receive reimbursement in at least the United States through physical medicine billing code for 1) electrical stimulation 2) biofeedback.

“The Universe”-- Scenar 97.7

SCENAR-97 equipment, module of computer interface unit and software packages:
information (IS),
real time (RTS), a posteriori processing (APPS).

IS contains methodical software with the instructions demonstrating operation in real time when treating specific diseases.

The opportunity of computer storage of specially developed methods.

RTS allows to input, to process and to store the SCENAR impact during treatment. APPS ensures presentation of the stored information in convenient form.

Transformation Technologies
PO Box 4
Nobleton, FL. 34661-0004
(877)287-0912